

Concert Dedication— Ms. Masel Quinn

The concerts of Thursday and Sunday, the last of the 2009-2010 Season, are dedicated to Ms. Masel Quinn with the gratitude and heartfelt affection of all of us connected with the Symphony of the Hills. In making this dedication, the Board of Directors of the Symphony recognizes the steadfast dedication of Ms. Quinn to the Symphony through her financial generosity and her unflagging attendance at concerts through each and every Season since the onset of the Symphony eight years ago. The unwavering patronage of Ms. Quinn, a community resident well known and highly regarded by all of us in Kerrville, continues to play a significant role in behalf of the Symphony's Mission and even more broadly in support of the arts in Kerrville, thus enriching the quality of life of all Kerr County residents. In the particular case of the Symphony, Ms. Quinn's generous contributions have enabled the Symphony of the Hills to continue in its efforts to provide symphonic music of quality to our Hill Country community and to foster the musical pursuits of student musicians with a demonstrated talent and passion for the musical arts.

It is especially appropriate to recognize Ms. Quinn in these concerts, since one of those student musicians with a real success story will be performing solo with the Symphony. Ms. Nancy Zhou, a stunning young violin virtuoso, is already internationally recognized for her talent and musical dedication. Nancy will be performing a piece by Paganini considered to be diabolically difficult for any violinist, especially for one of such tender years. Ms. Quinn and we have seen the spectacular development of this delightful young artist over several years.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and all of us lucky patrons of the Symphony of the Hills, we express our heartfelt gratitude to Ms. Masel Quinn.
